PUBLIC NOTICE

May 6th, 2023| 9:50am

The current water level is 8.16 metres.

The water level rose again during the night to approximately 10.7 metres, (likely due to ice pushing through from the Liard), and has been dropping steadily since around 3:15am.

The river is flowing well with no sign of ice jamming from town.

Updates available on fortsimpson.com/spring-breakup-2023/