

Fort Simpson Evacuee Status Update

July 18, 2026

With the landing of the final provided return flight, all evacuees of Fort Simpson are no longer entitled to any evacuation supports. The Yellowknife Evacuation Center is closing, and residents should return home or go elsewhere at this time.

As Fort Simpson is not yet back at full-service capacity, residents of Wrigley still seeking evacuation assistance should go to their designated host community of Fort Smith.

Thank you.
